Down in the VALLEY . . .

The Year of the Pain

Some of us thought we'd walk a little taller, if we walked away. And there were those who couldn't do or wouldn't do what those who stayed behind were left to do.

A black and white photograph of a seascape. The foreground shows dark, choppy water with white foam from breaking waves. The middle ground features a calm sea meeting a distant, hazy horizon. The sky is filled with large, dramatic, and textured clouds, with some light breaking through near the horizon.

DREAM PLANET

by

LISA BUSH

"I'm looking for a dream place
Searching for a dream planet
It's got to be solid as granite
Something I can really face.
I want to get away from reality
Got to pull away from formality
Roll up inside myself
Look at my mind, search my soul
There's something to find, what is it?
Well, it'll show.
Walking across times dimensions
Look for my mind's extensions
Where does it all begin?
Will there ever be an end?
Is there such a thing as sin?
Everything's a dream
Floating on clouds with just a moon beam
For company.
The webs of the world are binding me tight
Filling my whole essence with fright . . .
Always looking for a dream place
With a dream light
Something I can really get ahold of Something I can face . . ."

Some of us chase shadows,
Dreams and ambitions
And as we went
We waved goodbye
Never knowing if we would
Ever be there again

Another night of faces
All unknown, not seen completely
Not seen again
There are eyes and forms
That stand out even in the dark
It's then they become individuals
Not audience

TIME

Time for living, time for dying,
 Time for loving, time for crying,
 Time for happiness, time for sadness,
 Time for life to go on,
 Time for having a love to go on forever,
 Time for children coming up to ask you a few things,
 Time for giving love and happiness
 to others and children,
 Time for all of their times.

ON THE JOB

Dean Schleif - Coordinator

"Don't ever try to go there, it's to dream of, not to find. Lovely things like that are, mostly in your mind" . . . "Today I felt so far away from you and California, and from what I thought life was, and these may be the last days I'll ever know . . ."

"Some of us chase shadows, dreams, and ambitions. And as we went we waved goodbye. Never knowing if we would ever be here again. How true is truth? If I say I love, do I mean loving you to the intrusion of all else and of all others, and do I know if I mean that . . ."

SO FAR, SO GOOD!

Dear Class of '78:

At this point you are supposed to have graduated from high school

✓ You have

You are supposed to have found avenues for self-expression: academic achievement, group activities, sports, hobbies

✓ You have

So far, so good. You are right on schedule. But don't call it an education!

It isn't

Learning takes a lifetime—but congratulations on having completed the first step. So far, so good—and may your way ahead be one of continued accomplishment and deep satisfaction.
